

I am appalled by Sinclair Broadcast Group's recent actions, which have only highlighted the dangers of media consolidation in the U.S. When large companies control the airwaves, they control the information we all receive. It's a powerful responsibility, and Sinclair is clearly not acting responsibly. We need to strengthen media ownership rules in this country.
Thank you for your time.